AUSTIN BAROQUE ORCHESTRA 2016-2017 CONCERT SEASON

Wholly Handel!
Saturday September 17, 2016 at 8:00 PM
Sunday September 18, 2016 at 3:00 PM
First English Lutheran Church
3001 Whitis Ave. • Austin, TX 78705

Join us as we kick off our sixth season with a celebration of one of the heavyweights of classical music – George Frideric Handel! Handel’s music has been popular since his death in 1759, and if you join us for this concert, you’ll see why! The program will include the Oboe Concerto in G minor, the Concerto Grosso op. 3 no. 1, Zadok the Priest, and selections from Messiah, Belshazzar, Israel in Egypt, Serse, Rinaldo, Semele, and Giulio Cesare.

Friends & Family
Saturday January 28, 2017 at 8:00 PM
Sunday January 29, 2017 at 3:00 PM
UTSA Arts Building Recital Hall
1 UTSA Circle, San Antonio, TX 78249

Composers in the past didn’t live in a bubble! Many musicians working in late 18th-century Austria were friends, colleagues, or even family! This program will contain a variety of Classic-era works, including Mozart’s Piano Concerto no. 17, the Sinfonia da caccia of Leopold Mozart, the overtures from Armida by Haydn and La scuola di gelosia by Salieri, and Dittersdorf’s Symphony in D major, The Fall of Phaëton.

Forces of Nature
Saturday May 6, 2017 at 8:00 PM
Sunday May 7, 2017 at 3:00 PM
First English Lutheran Church
3001 Whitis Ave. • Austin, TX 78705

We close the season with orchestral music inspired by nature! From a symphonic morning scene by Haydn to Jean-Féry Rebel’s musical depiction of the Ancient Greek creation myth and operatic arias by Rameau and Handel sung by soprano Julianna Emanski, you’ll see how powerful and moving the natural world can be! We’ll close with the Brandenburg Concerto no. 1 showing that Bach's genius itself was a force of nature.

Native Tongues

The Spanish encountered a myriad of cultures upon their arrival in the New World, and they soon began to use their knowledge of indigenous languages in the conversion of the natives to Catholicism. This included the composition of music with texts in both indigenous and European languages. This program features a choir of vocal soloists performing works with texts in Spanish, Portuguese, Latin, Nahuatl, Quechua, and Chiquitano, accompanied by Renaissance instruments, with music of Fernandes, Zipoli, Araújo, Salazar, the ever-popular Anonymous, and more.

J.S. Bach’s Passion According to St. John
Saturday March 18, 2017 at 7:00 PM
First English Lutheran Church
3001 Whitis Ave. • Austin, TX 78705
Sunday March 19, 2017 at 4:00 PM
St. Mary’s Catholic Church
304 W. San Antonio St, Fredericksburg, TX, 78624

JS Bach’s Johannespassion was composed for Good Friday services in Leipzig in 1724. The text, drawn from Martin Luther’s translation of the Gospel of John, tells the story of Christ’s arrest, trial, and death, interspersed with arias, duets, and chorales that offer devotional commentary on the story. Soloists Barrett Radzuin, Gil Zilkha, Julianna Emanski, Nicholas Garza, and Jeffrey Jones-Ragona will be backed by the full orchestra and chorus.
